★ Personal Response: Your opinions about the responding questions you chose.

1. Responding question #1: (State it here.)

In your opinion, why did the author Lowry name this book Number the Stars?

Your opinions:

The psalm in Bible says, 'The Lord is exalting Jerusalem: he gathers in the scattered sons of Israel. It is he who heals the broken in spirit and binds up their wounds, he who numbers the stars one by one...' The 'stars' in the psalm and the name of the book refers to the star of David, which is the symbol of Jewish. 'Number the stars' is metaphorical for not only the entire Jewish population of Denmark then but also the effort that the Danish Resistance made to save the Jewish's lives.

2. Responding question #2: (State it here.)

Though her experiences, what did Annemarie discover courage?

Your opinions:

Ever since she met German soldiers she reminded herself what her uncle had told her. For example, the time the soldier asked her who died, and then she put the soldiers on the way she delivered the basket to her uncle. She knew for what Uncle Henrik had meant is to be brave. 'cave more easily if you knew nothing. It seems to me that it's just like "Feels like to where angels fear to tread" or "Newborn calves make little of tigers" However, I took a little different view about this. I would say that courage doesn't mean ignorance and reckless, it's supposed to be that continually facing and overcoming.

Number the Stars

Chapters 7-12

★ Analyzing Literature:
Recall and Interpret

1. Why did Mama send Annemarie with the packet for Uncle Henrik instead of taking it herself?

I guess that is because Mama thinks a native girl will reduce the soldiers' wary of upheaval. The soldiers will just believe that Annemarie is a silly little girl rather than a girl who actually held on a fake lunch basket with a special drag in the handkerchief that hides the sense of smell.

RESPONDING

★ Personal Response: Choose two questions from the following list. Discuss with your group members about the two questions and write down your opinions. (Be ready to share your discussion with the whole class.)

- According to the personal definition of bravery that you came up with in the Focus Activity on page 16, do you think the Johansens are brave?
- In your opinion, why did the author Lowry name this book Number the Stars? Think about the whole text of the psalm from which the title is taken. Think about the context in which it is read and the way Annemarie reacts when she hears it. Then explain the significance of the title to the theme of the book.
- How can Annemarie do what she had to do? Where did she get her strength? Notice her use of Kirsti as a role model when she needs to make the soldiers think she's innocent and the way she comforts herself in the woods by remembering the story of Little Red Riding Hood. Stay within the book for as long as you can, looking at the characters and the reasons behind their actions.
Choose a character from the story. Specifically describe what she/he did. Explain (in your own opinions) the reason behind her/his actions.
- Choose two Key Concept Terms. Write the terms' definitions and relate your definitions to the events in the novel and class/small group discussions.
Take a look at the bottom of p.4. There are 3 important terms worth discussion.
- Through her experiences what did Annemarie discover about courage, pride and friendship? (Specify one of these three terms to express your opinions.)

Tasks Arrangement

Be sure to fill in the following form so that the teacher will know better about how you arrange the group work together.

COVID-19

在在外籍人士都能購買口罩 | All foreigners in Taiwan can buy masks: health officials

By Mini Hsin-sun Sun, Vivian Hsiao and Shelly Yang, The China Post February 5, 2020

Notice the byline

① To protect themselves from the epidemic, Coronavirus, which has become a pandemic issue, foreign tourists, students, and others on various types of visas, as well as the locals, are allowed to buy masks at pharmacies once the incoming mask policy goes into effect tomorrow, the National Health Insurance (NHI) said on Wednesday. (NOWnews)

② The comment contradicts an earlier report from the state-run Central News Agency (CNA) saying that foreign nationals without NHI cards would be left out of the mask rationing plan.

③ The NHI official in charge of the implementation of the new mask policy, Lin Yo-chun (林右鈞) told The China Post earlier today that foreigners who don't have a NHI card can purchase masks at designated pharmacies with their passports.

④ To clarify, another NHI official, Chang You-hsuan (張鈺賢) told The China Post that she never said foreigners are not entitled to masks, but they require different identification from those who have NHI cards. Tourists, diplomats, or other non-Taiwanese nationals visiting on a business visa should bring their passports, Chang said.

⑤ Foreign residents who have health insurance, usually those who hold an Alien Resident Certificate (ARC) or an Alien Permanent Resident Certificate (APRC) should still use their health insurance card to purchase masks, Chang said.

⑥ Those who have residency but health insurance coverage are pending, or foreign spouses from China should bring their resident certificate or exit/entry permits.

⑦ Starting Thursday, adults in Taiwan will only be allowed to buy two face masks per week at NHI contracted pharmacies while five masks for children, according to the Central Epidemic Command Center (CECC), 中央流行病學指揮中心. CECC Chief Commander Chen Shih-chung (陳時中) said that everyone is allowed to purchase for maximum one friend or family member as long as they bring their national health insurance cards along with their own.

⑧ Home quarantine is still the best option during the critical time. However, people are still in need of masks while leaving home for work and school. In order to avoid long queues, residents should go to pharmacies according to the last digit of their ID number, residency number, or passport number.

⑨ If the later ends in an odd number, you are eligible to buy masks on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays; even numbers should go on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays. Sundays are open to all.

⑩ The flat fee per piece will drop by NT$1 (US$0.33) from NT$6 (US$0.2) to NT$5 (US$0.16), and locals will need to show their health insurance card to make a purchase, the minister added.

 From April 9, 9 for adults, 10 for children every 14 days.

Find the information for Q1-3 from the article, and answer Q4-5 on your own

- How can foreigners buy surgical masks?
They can purchase masks at designated pharmacies with their passports.
- How can we buy surgical masks?
We can buy masks at pharmacies with our health insurance card.
- What are the differences between the current mask policy and then for adults and children respectively?
Children can buy five face masks per week, but adults only two.
- What do you want to say to Covidiot?
If you go to supermarkets which filled with people, you have more chances to infect COVID-19.
- What celebrities infected with COVID do you know?
Tom Hanks who famous for his regular movie.

Covidiot (covid + idiot)
an insulting term for someone who ignores health advice about Covid-19, heeds food unnecessarily, etc.

Directions

View the T.E.D. Talk and complete the following grid. If you run out of space on the grid for any of your answers, feel free to continue writing on the back of this sheet.

1 Title of T.E.D. Talk:
What I learned from 100 days of rejection

2 Name of Speaker:
Jia Jiang

3 Date of T.E.D. Talk and Number of Views:
Dec. 2016, 89 million

4 What was the speaker's thesis (main point) of this speech?
When you face a rejection, you might be afraid, but all you need to do is and embrace it. Don't run! Another major idea is sometimes you can get notes from others by asking.

5 Circle any of the following adjectives that describe this TED talk:
Humorous, Inspiring, Dull, Persuasive, Intellectual, Repetitive, Confusing

6 Ethos is a speaker's ability to build credibility, establish himself/herself as an expert, and/or convince the audience members that the speaker has their best interests at heart. How does this speaker build ethos? Feel free to also refer to the speaker's profile information from the ted.com webpage as you build your answer.
When the speakers talk about some new ideas, they can use a description which is professional or take own special experience for example to support this idea.

7 Pathos is an appeal to emotions [everything from humor to horror] in order to sway an audience, while logos is the use of data/evidence to prove one's case. Did this speaker rely more on pathos or logos in his/her presentation? What argument/point in this presentation did you find the most compelling? Why?
The title is attractive, it talks about 100 days of rejection. The example of his own experience also compelling, because they are funny and crazy.

8 T.E.D. Talk presenters are known as effective public speakers. Describe two things this speaker does well in terms of engaging the audience. Be sure to include the minute:second mark (ex: 8:49) to denote the two specific moments you discuss here.

1. He uses some picture to describe his story or make his ideas clearer.

2. His humor let the audience focus on his presentation. The examples of rejection are so interesting that can attract many people to listen.

9 Write two specific things you learned from this presentation.

1. A rejection isn't a bad thing. It is more important that what you will do after getting a rejection. We need to embrace a rejection.

2. When you get someone's rejection, just don't run. You can even ask to make yourself to get a job. have a chance.

10 If you could ask this speaker a question about his/her information or presentation, what would you ask?
Where do you find a brave to do all of these activities?

11 Give one piece of constructive criticism that would improve the presentation.
I observed that this speaker often says "Hum". If he can avoid this habit, I think this presentation might be smoother.

12 What group of people would benefit the most from hearing this lecture?
Someone who is rejected by others and feels really bad.

After going to university, I will prefer to live in a school dormitory rather than rent a room outside the school. Since I was young, I have been an outgoing girl. Making a lot of friends is my hobby. I really like to hang out with friends on weekends. So I guess I will need roommates to chat with after studying all day long. We can share some fun things during a day or even help each other throughout the hardship.

Another disadvantage of a room outside the school is you have to do everything by yourself. I think it is more convenient for me to work with two or three people together, such as cleaning room, washing bathroom, etc. When you face some danger or problem, you must solve it alone. I can't imagine if I meet a bad guy and there is no one by my side.

Also, the roommates can help me adapt to new environment more quickly. Anyway, there are so many advantages if I live in a school dormitory. I believe that a school dormitory can bring me a lot of fun.
